FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Responsible Beverage Service Training for Alcohol Retailers in the City of San Bernardino

A Responsible Beverage Service training will be offered on March 26, 2007, by the San Bernardino County Department of Public Health, in cooperation with the City of San Bernardino Police Department and Operation Phoenix. This free training is certified by the State of California and includes helpful information, such as state and local alcohol laws, liabilities, community standards, checking ID, identifying and refusing sales to minors, and identifying and refusing sales to intoxicated patrons. Business owners are urged to call and register, since seating is limited to 25 people per session.

The training will be held at the San Bernardino City Hall in the 4th floor conference room. Complimentary parking is provided on the 5th floor parking structure next to the City Hall building. There are two training opportunities available. Session I is from 10:00 a.m. to 12:30 p.m., and Session II is from 2:00 p.m. to 4:30 p.m. Register for the morning or afternoon session by calling (909) 387-6280. Funding for this program was provided by a grant from the California Office of Traffic Safety, through the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration.
